The Secretary(E),
Railway Board,
New Delhi

Dear Sir,

Sub: Conference of the Engineers

A conference of the Jr. Engineers and Sr. Section Engineers of all the departments was organized by our affiliate - North Western Railway Employees Union at Ajmer on 3rd February, 2013, wherein following demands were made:-

- (i) Grade Pay of Rs.4800 and 5400 to Jr. Engineer and Sr. Section Engineer respectively.
- (ii) Classification of Engineers as Group 'B' as per order of the DoP&T.
- (iii) Grant benefit of stepping up of pay to seniors over their juniors under MACP scheme.
- (iv) Upgradation of posts of Engineers in apex grade.
- (v) Grant benefit of MACPS counting training period.
- (vi) Fixation of pay at par with direct recruits in promotional post.
- (vii) Promotion to the post of Asst. Officer against Ranker Quota as per seniority, without conducting any selection.
- (viii) Payment of Risk Allowance to all the JEs/SSEs working in field.
- (ix) Grant benefit of MACPS to Drawing/Design Staff, treating placement of Jr. Draftsman (comes from Tracer) as "Placement" and not "Promotion".
- (x) Provision of CUG facilities to JEs/SSEs of all departments.
- (xi) Incentives for acquiring higher education in the shape of advance increment.

We earnestly hope that the above demands of the JEs/SSEs will certainly receive favourable response from the Railway Board.

Yours faithfully,

(Shiva Gopal Mishra)
General Secretary
