No.AIRF/115

Dated: March 18, 2013

The Secretary(E),
Railway Board,
New Delhi

Dear Sir,

Sub: Revised option for pay fixation after grant of one increment to the employees whose annual increment was due between February to June 2006

In terms of Board's letter dated 23.3.2012, one increment has been granted to those employees whose annual increment was due between February to June 2006 w.e.f. 01.01.2006 in the pre revised scale. In the circumstances, certain employees who had given their option earlier at the time of new pay scale were granted after implementation of VI CPC's recommendations have been put to disadvantageous position with the grant of one additional increment w.e.f.01.01.2006. This was in fact, an unforeseen situation at the time the option was given by them.

In terms of Board's letter No.E(P&A)II-2003/PP-1 dated 16.10.2003 Railway Servant may give revised/fresh option for the purpose of fixation of pay under Rule 1313(FR22(1)(a)/(1))of IREC Vol. II within one month's time.

In the light of the above said position, the employees who have been granted one increment w.e.f.01.01.2006 in pre-revised scales may be permitted to give their fresh option for the purpose of fixation their pay.

AIRF humbly requests that the matter may be considered in proper perspective in the interest of such railway servants.

Yours faithfully,

(Shiva Gopal Mishra)
General Secretary
